23 August 1990

Dear Mr Conyngham,

Thank you for your letter of March 17 and for your recent letter of August 13. I apologise for the very long delay in completing your research. I regret that I have not been successful in finding any links with "your" Conynghams and I was chasing up other possibilities in the course of various other projects I have been doing. As a means of locating the couple I first did a search of the death records of Cunnninghams/Conynghams from 1864 to 1894 in the registration district of Youghal and the neighbouring districts of Cork. These are listed below.

Year	Name	Age	District	Ref;	No.
1869	Mary Cunningham	21	Youghal	19.585	1
1872	Richard "	22	Cork	15.128	2
1877	Mary "	75	Youghal	4.715	3
1878.1	Francis Cuningham	42	"	4.762	4
" .3	Mary Cunningham	70	"	4.609	5
" .4	Peter "	76	"	4.686	6
" .4	Peter "	74	"	4.686	7
1883.4	Mary "	70	"	4.565	8
1885.1	Mary "	88	"	4.713	9
1887.4	Richard "	80	Midleton	4.453	10
1891.4	Mary "	70	"	4.410	11
1892.1	M. "	80	Cork	5.117	12
1894.1	Mary "	65	"	5.69	13
1894.4	Mary "	73	"	5.87	14

(The last number is my own reference for the purposes of the discussion below). Firstly there were no Conynghams listed at all. This may only be a reflection of the registrar's preference for spelling of the name. If, as was not at all unusual, the family were illiterate, then they would obviously not be in a position to determine the spelling of the name. I think you should consider that the family name may be spelt in this way in any records we may find in Ireland.

Your recent letter indicating that Mary died in NY has made the above search somewhat pointless. I think it likely that Richard pre-deceased Mary as she would be unlikely to leave him behind in going to the USA.

For Richard there is only one possibility ie No.10 but the death occurred in Midleton rather than Youghal. There is always the possibility, however unlikely, that Richard lived later than 1894. Indeed if he lived to 1901, then we could possibly find him in the returns of the Government Census of that year. However, we would need an address for this purpose. I will leave you to consider whether we should obtain the full certificates of the above, or to search further.

I also searched the records of the RC church of Youghal for the Marriage of Richard/Mary from 1830-35 but without success. I also searched the baptismal records in 1847 and 1848 for Michael or John Conyngham/Cunningham. Again there were no such baptisms recorded.

Finally, I searched some other general sources, such as the "Journal of The Association for the Preservation of Memorials of the Dead" Vols 1-12 for memorial inscriptions of the couple but without success.

That is all I was able to accomplish in the two hours you requested.

Sorry not to have better news,

Yours sincerely,

James Ryan
