Dear Dick;

Thank you for your letter of December 1, 1993 regarding the Hawkins family.

My information shows that my Hawkins family came from Queen Annes Co., MD to Abbeville Co., SC and from there they moved up to Fayette, Franklin, and Fountain Co., IN just to name a few.

My immediate Nancy Hawkins was married in Fayette CO., IN and was either born in KY or SC. Her father's name was Joseph.

I have found no connection with New York or a Michael. There are several Nancys in the family line. Michael is not a common name.

I will keep you letter on file for future reference.

Sincerely,

Joyce Fagerness

1. Enclosed you will find a copy of the pages from the Decatur City Directories for the year 1899 with all HAWKINS listed---no Hugh or Peter. We do not have any copies of City Directories between 1899 and 1914.
2. Enclosed you will find a copy of our research policy. If you could give us more specific dates for births, marriages, deaths we might be able to find further information. (Was Peter HAWKINS an old or young man when he died in Danville in 1906? Was he a veteran?)

Dear Dick:

Please accept my apology for not replying sooner. I had a major crash on my computer and have spent all my spare time with it.

All I know about my Melissa Hawkins is that she had a sister named Ella, and a sister named Helen. I do not know her parents names. She states in census and Civil War records that she was born in New Hampshire.

I am going to try and do some reverse genealogy on her. I have found several Hawkins who were in the Revolutionary War and were from New Hampshire. I am going to work on them and see if I can bring them forward and find any clues.

I have found a Hawkins in the Clinton Co., census who might be her father, but it is just a shot in the dark, but at this time, it is all I have.

Melissa moved with her husband Hollis Goodell to Kansas.

If you want to send me a group sheet on your Michael, I would be willing to keep an eye out for him during any of my research.

Please let me know.

Sincerely,

It looks as though you might get some additional clues about Peter HAWKINS in Decatur. They have a very active genealogical society there and have published many works. I suggest you write to them: Decatur Genealogical Society, PO Box 2205, Decatur, IL 62526.

There is no charge for the information we found for you. However, in the future please refer to the enclosed sheet. You might also be interested in my books of genealogy columns, "Illiana Ancestors" (Vol 1: 1981, 82, 83; Vol 2: 1984, 85, 86; Vol 3: 1987, 88, 89). Volume 2 has three queries relating to HAWKINS. Each of the other two has one HAWKINS query. The articles pertain mainly to the Illiana area but can be helpful to genealogists in general. See flyer.

Dear Friend,

This is a charming recollection of Annie, your relative. Since it's first-hand, I thought of it as precious to you. The woman who wrote it is something of a saint:

our church organist,

choir director,

R.C.D. teacher,

Church librarian - to mention a few of her selfless activities... a simply wonderful person who could, as a child, appreciate your Annie.

I hope you've had success in your research. I wish you many good things in your future. I leave here June 24. Thanks for your prayers.

Sincerely,

Sister Francis

Annie Hawkins -

When I was a little girl, maybe 6 or 7, our cousin whom we called "Aunt Annie" lived across the road on Stephens Street from a lady by the name of Annie Hawkins. I believe she lived at about 45 Stephens St. Aunt Annie was a widow lady without children and she and Annie Hawkins became great friends.

Some afternoons or evenings they would walk together over to our home a few blocks away to visit my mother. We children (I had a brother and a sister) would love to see them coming because it meant for us an hour or so of stories and delightful conversation.

Annie Hawkins, a small slightly round-shouldered lady, would be dressed in an ankle length dark skirt, dark blouse, and a shawl or coat. She had sparkling blue eyes which she kept on us while she talked, knowing she had us "hooked" with her tales. She talked with a brogue which I think she acquired from family and friends because I think she was born in this country. There was always a lot of laughter during the visit and everyone always felt good after they left.

My brother tells the story that Annie loved to go to our little theater to see the movies. She usually sat in the small balcony near the projector which beamed the pictures on the screen. One day, at a particularly harrowing moment of the story, when the heroine was about to be "done in" by the villains, Annie jumped to her feet and said to the crew on the projector, "Glory be to God, can't some of you boys do something to help that poor woman."

Annie Hopkins was one of my happy memories of childhood.

Dear Mr. Conyngham:

I hope you will be happy with the enclosed information. It is the result of three days' work and thirteen books in the Annals of the church! I've done library and research work in my teaching years and I do find it all fascinating -- but very time-consuming.

What I have sent herewith is the sum total of our annals. But we do have a very fine historian in our Village, Mr. Fred Gifford. I just phoned him and he will try the Canandaigua Court House records. Because of his work and his reputation, he will easily receive access to their annals. Perhaps if you could send me some of the information you already possess about your ancestors, with Fred's help, we may be able to piece together a more complete picture. It's worth a try, don't you agree?

I haven't had time to check the cemetery plots to discover where the Hawkins folks are buried. Our annals have three of them listed. Perhaps if I can locate the plot, a headstone may give other names, too. It's a mystery what happened to all those Hawkins men: Hugh, Thomas, Tim, Michael and Lawrence. None of them are listed as buried here. And the girls: whom did they marry? and when? and where? all very interesting. I wish you continued good fortune in your search.

You had a few questions: the first church in Clifton Springs for Catholics was named St. Agnes, and it was located on Stephens (Stevens) Street. When it burned, the next location is Hibbard Avenue, corner Spring Street, and it was named after its first pastor, who built it, St. Felix for Rev. Felix J. O'Hanlon. The early church was ALL Irish, including their pastors. In the books, it lists their homeland, "Ireland", but no specific County or city. Our first records are 1856. St. Felix was built in 1895. If there were records of baptisms, marriages, deaths before 1856, they may have been burned in the fire...a sad thought, but let us try the Canandaigua Court House records to see; perhaps there were duplicates!

I will be leaving St. Felix in June of this year. You are fortunate to have begun your quest here when you did, because this church and three others in the area may well be "clustered," with one priest for all of them, and who knows what kind of staff will be available at each church? God bless you now. Father Roach and I ask your prayers for us and for the people of this parish: wonderful people with a wonderful history and waiting for us in our Grand Reunion in Heaven!

Blessings, and good wishes,

Sister Francis Nalley, O.L.C.
